Rooted In Education supports the development of whole and healthy children by installing gardens (living laboratories) in partnership with Schools and community organizations; creating programs, curriculum, and educational paradigms linking learners to themselves and the living world; and empowering Schools with need-based grants to increase students' access to enriching extracurriculars.

Launched in 2021, our network of Fare Harvest Community and Learning Gardens provide space for immersive garden-based learning experiences and connection to nature and nourishment for the wellbeing of children, their families and community.

The Opportunity:

Teach educational garden workshops for students; in class and in our school-based learning gardens

Your Contribution:

- Currently hold or are in the pursuit of a horticulture degree, or at least 1 year of related gardening education, and/or hands on experience
- Understanding of regenerative agriculture principles and methods
- Experience working in an educational setting with children (K-8); excellent classroom management skills
- Available to hold workshops during the school day, and/or directly after until 3 pm - 5:15 pm for afterschool programs
- Timely arrival prior to workshop (at least 15 minutes; workshop needs vary)
- Ability to lift 10-15 lbs and work outside in the elements for extended periods
- Supervise students to ensure safety and wellbeing
- Communicate with teachers for scheduling and follow up, as needed
- Reliable transportation
- Maintain garden professional appearance and courtesy when onsite
- Passion for gardening and working with children
- Timely and clear communication, honest, motivated, creative problem solver and flexible

Our Commitment:

- Part-time ($20/hr); number of hours is dependant upon workshop
- Coordination of planned schedule - minimum 1-2 weeks in advance
- On the job training + provision of all educational materials and supplies for workshops
- Foster personal and professional development
- Timely and clear communication
