

Achieving the Dream Committee Presents...

Dr. Joseph Windham

Student Voices Conference

Thursday, April 20, 2017

11:00 am – 3:00 pm

Bisdorf 196

The Dr. Joseph Windham Student Voices Conference offers a unique opportunity for outstanding students from all disciplines to showcase their academic work of unusual depth and quality before a supportive audience of peers, faculty and staff.

Selected participants present 8–10 minute summations of completed academic work.

Presenters are grouped by a series of 50-minute panel sessions followed by a questions and answer interaction with the audience.

Student work may include research from any academic discipline.

Students interested in sharing their work and who have the endorsement of their professor should complete the online submission form by Friday, March 31st, 2017.

Online submission form: <http://novastudentvoices2017.weebly.com/>

For more information contact: Shon Grant at sgrant@nvcc.edu

