

Part-Time Junior Landscape Designer

Native Plant Landscape Design is a small, growing landscape design firm based in Northern VA. We specialize in sustainable design, using native plants to create beautiful gardens and we are looking to hire a junior designer to help us grow!

We are looking for a flexible, energetic team member with a positive attitude who is interested in native plants, sustainability and local ecosystems. NPLD is a small, fun team and we take pride in making a difference. We have seasonally heavy workloads in the spring and fall and there is design work available throughout the year. We need a designer who can meet client requirements with effective and creative design solutions under defined time constraints, with the help of the rest of the team. We envision that there will be opportunities for professional growth at NPLD and for potential expansion into a full-time position. Job responsibilities will include:

- Working with more experienced designers to draft landscape design plans
- Creating revisions on existing drawings under the direction of senior designers
- Creating reports in CADD to give quantities of plant material and hardscapes to develop client quotes etc...
- Communication with design clients and contractors
- Assisting with site inventories
- Assisting with design installation, under the supervision of experienced team members
- Developing maintenance plans and directing maintenance in the field.

Required Qualifications

Training in site analysis and inventory, planting and hardscape design and CADD software

Proficiency with word processing, spreadsheet and presentation software

Demonstrated problem-solving abilities

Ability to work well with colleagues and clear communication skills

Ability to drive and availability of transportation

Ability to lift 50lb

Positive attitude

Ability to work in seasonally challenging conditions and on uneven terrain

Desired Qualifications

Familiarity with native plant materials

Experience with Vectorworks

CBLP certification

Spanish language

This is currently an hourly position. If interested, please submit a cover letter and resume to info@nativeplantld.com