

School Year 2023-24

Sponsor: The Virginia Society of Landscape Designers is a nonprofit association that provides continuing education opportunities to its members as well as networking opportunities. The scholarship program is offered to students in the Commonwealth of Virginia who intend to pursue a career as a landscape designer.

Eligibility: A Commonwealth of Virginia resident college student accepted to a college program that offers an Associate of Applied Science Degree in Horticulture with a Specialization in Landscape Design. A minimum of 3.0 cumulative grade point average is also required.

Scholarship Awarded: $1000 and a year membership to VSLD after graduating.

Name: _____ Student ID: _____

Mailing Address: _____

City: _____ State: _____ Zip Code: _____

Email Address: _____ Phone: _____

College Attending: _____ Major: _____

Signature: _____ I agree to follow the requirements of this scholarship and commit to join VSLD for a year as part of this award.

Required Documents:

- Floor plan of a residential landscape design project (11" x 17" min.)
- Copy of official college transcripts
- One-page cover letter describing your career objectives
- Resume showing work experience and contact information for 3 references
- Letter of recommendation from your department head or instructor

Send snapshots of the above documents to Arnaldo Cardona, VSLD Scholarship Chair, at the following email address: acardonar@Comcast.net

Deadline: April 30, 2023. The award should be used to register for courses that will lead to finishing the specialization in Landscape Design.

