

NVCC (Loudoun)
Public History and Historic Preservation Certificate Program
Summary of 2016 Activities

In the spring, the college's administrative council approved changes to the program: the name is now the Public History and Historic Preservation Career Studies Certificate; the course requirements reduced to 18 credits with a different mix of courses; 2 year window to improve the program's graduation rate

Marketing

Revised and updated the program blog
Created Facebook page
Rack publicity card and business card

Visits

Sterling organization
Colvin Run
Morven Park
Sully Plantation
Aldie Mill
Arlington
Purcellville
Prince William
Oatlands
George C. Marshall Center in Leesburg
Morven Pak
Loudoun coalition
Waterford
Mosby Heritage Association

Working on journal and Foundation grants

HIS Pres Advisory committee renewed

Applied for membership to the National Council for Preservation Education (NCPE). We will also get our information on the National Council on Public History website.

Exhibited at the college's Career and technical Showcase, both spring and fall.

Marc Dluger hired

Enrollments

Spring (187, 190 and 218) 16 students
Summer (190 and 218) 7 students
Fall (181, 183, 190 and 218) 32 students

Students

Currently 47 students on our email mailing list

Graduates

In theory, 5 graduates spring 2016
So far, 3 graduates spring 2017