

Journal of Prince William County History

Call for Papers

Historic Prince William and the Prince William County Historic Preservation Division are partnering to create a scholarly research journal featuring original articles dealing with the history of Prince William County. Any topics on local history will be considered including biographies of individuals, history of events, and histories of institutions or businesses.

Article submissions are due:
December 1, 2018

Articles selected will be included in the inaugural issue scheduled for publication in March 2019.

Email: Bill Backus at bbackus@pwcgov.org

Preferred Article Format for Submission:

Written with the Chicago Manual of Style. Use endnotes with notation in the traditional historical form.

Length, including endnotes: 5,000 to 7,000 words

Email as a Microsoft Word 2016 attachment.

